Col. Wm. Tidball to Speak at Legion

Scouts and Bala-Cynwyd Post,
Veterans of Foreign Wars, to Be Guests.

CIVIL WAR AUTHORITY

The Narberth Troop, Boy Scouts of America, and the Bala-Cynwyd Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be the guests of the Harold D. Speakman Post at its meeting on Monday night.

The speaker will be Colonel William Tidball, U. S. A., retired, now connected with the University of Pennsylvania, who will talk on "Interesting incidents of the Civil War." The address will be illustrated.

Colonel Tidball, whose hobby is Civil War history, is a West Point graduate, class of 1901. He was connected with the Coast Artillery until 1922 when he retired. He saw service in the Philippines for two years and from September, 1917, to May, 1919, was with the A. E. F. in France in the artillery as a line officer. He was connected with the first, second, fourth, fifth and eightieth divisions and received numerous letters of commendation and citations for excellence in the performance of his duties.

His Father was chief of ordinance of the Union army in the South during the Civil War.

All who are interested in hearing Colonel Tidball are invited to be present at the Legion room of the Community Building, Windsor Avenue, Narberth, at 9 P. M. Refreshments will be served.

Cynwyd Scoutmaster Is Speaker at Rotary

A discussion of Boy Scout work featured the meeting Tuesday of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. Frank H. Seely, Jr., Scoutmaster of Cynwyd Troop 2, was the speaker.

Mr. Seely told of the origin of the movement in England, under the direction of Sir Robert Baden-Powell, who noticed the lack of outdoor knowledge on the part of soldiers. The movement spread to this country in 1909 and has grown until today well over a million boys and older men are identified with it.

The speaker told of the requirements for the different classes, and of the "postgraduate" or merit badge honors. He stressed the need of more men to act as advisers and merit badge counsellors.

Special emphasis was laid on the growing need on the Main Line of a spot in the woods where the boys may practice their crafts. The increase of building, with the destruction of the woods, is making it more and more necessary that some unrestricted spot be found for camping and nature work.

Prison Work Subject of Council Address

Mrs. Henry Jump Speaker at
Meeting of L. M.-Narberth
Republican Women.

Mrs. Henry Jump, a member of the Philadelphia County Board of Prison Inspectors and of the Pennsylvania Crime Commission, was the speaker at the luncheon-meeting of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women at the Lodge Tea Room in Haverford on Monday.

For a number of years Mrs. Jump was the only woman on the County Board of Prison Inspectors. During this time she has used all her energies toward the betterment of conditions in the Philadelphia County Prisons and especially toward the securing of work for the woman inmates. It was not an easy task, as Mrs. Jump formerly met with much opposition from the male members of the board, as most of them were thoroughly imbued with the idea that women criminals were "too bad to receive anything better" than they were receiving at that time, which, according to Mrs. Jump, was simply

"The Whole Town's Talking," a three-act farce, by Nathaniel Reed, adapted by John Emerson and Anita Loos, will be presented by the Dramatic Committee of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth on Friday evening, March 13, at 8.15 o'clock at Elm Hall for the benefit of the club.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. Henry Frye, Chairman of the Dramatic Committee, who will be assisted by Mrs. Victor O. Krauskop. L. Collier is in charge of the lights and scenery; W. Russell Green is in charge of finance and Mrs. Charles Shaw of the publicity and tickets.

Mulieres Preparing for Mock Trial March 9th

Plans for the next meeting on March 9, when a mock trial will be presented, were discussed at the executive board session of the Mulieres, held Tuesday morning at the home of the president, Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller.

Memberships in the Narberth Fire Company, which the Mulieres are soliciting, are coming in slowly due to other demands being made at the present time for charity. Elmwood Avenue has the distinction of being the first and only street to date which has a 100 per cent membership in the Fire Company.

No School Monday

The Narberth Public Schools will be closed on February 23 in commemoration of Washington's birthday. They will be open for regular sessions on Tuesday.

NEW DESIGN DISCUSSED

A notable company of the members of the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter, of N. S. D. A. R., gathered at the home of Mrs. Addie K. Hewitt, 116 Essex Avenue, Narberth, on Monday afternoon to hear Mrs. P. Y. Schelly, national presidents of the Dames of the Loyal Legion, talk on "Flags of America Since the Year 1000 A. D."

"Why do we have flags at all?" asked Mrs. Schelly in opening. "Flags symbolize, and therefore mean much to those who carry them." The year 1000 A. D. took the lecturer back to Lief Ericson, who is said to have planted a white flag bearing a raven in the center in New England about that date.

Coming down the centuries, she spoke of the Spanish banner carried by Columbus. This flag had quarterings of the arms of Castile and Leon. Prior to the Revolutionary War, the flags of the thirteen colonies were all different. She mentioned the "Don't Tread on Me" flag and the Rattlesnake ensign of the Continental Navy, as well as other interesting banners carried in various parts and by various commands.

The Cambridge or Grand Union Flag was designed in 1775 after a special pattern designed by a committee of three, of which Benjamin Franklin was the chairman. As the union was composed of the Crosses of St. George and St. Andrew, this flag was still British. It was first unfurled on January 2, 1776, at Washington's Headquarters near Boston. The American Army was then besieging Boston.

The Real Old Glory

Now we come to the real Old Glory, which was made in Philadelphia under General Washington's supervision in the summer of 1776. It was ordered by Congress, which stipulated that the new flag was to be "distinguished by thirteen stripes, alternate red and white, and that the union was to be thirteen stars in white in a blue field representing a constellation." This was the flag of the five-pointed star as designed by Betsy Ross.

There is a dispute as to whether this flag was first under fire at Fort Stanwix, New York, in August of that summer, or at the Coosh's Bridge affair preliminary to the Battle of Brandywine early in September of the same year.

The flag that flew over Fort McHenry in Baltimore Harbor during the bombardment of that city by the British in the War of 1812 was dwelt upon in connection with the National anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," by Francis Scott Key.

The lecturer brought her hearers down to the Civil War in a most interesting, indeed illuminating manner.

In 1848 there were twenty-nine States and twenty-nine stars; at the end of the Civil War there were thirty-five States and thirty-five stars, and since July 4, 1912, there have been forty-eight stars.

A new flag design suggested by Wayne Whipple, of Germantown, was discussed. It would be the same as the present flag except in the arrangement of the stars. The idea is to represent the original States by the thirteen stars in a circle of stars representing the States during the past hundred years. Outside of this grand circle of stars would be the newcomers.

Mrs. Hugh Glenn Martin, Regent of the Chapter, presided. The delegates and alternate delegates appointed to the National Congress of N. S. D. A. R., which will be held in Washington on April 20 to April 26, inclusive, are as follows: Delegates: Mrs. Hugh Glenn Martin, Regent of the Chapter, Mrs. John Nash; alternate delegates, Mrs. E. C. Town, Mrs. R. J. Dothard, Mrs. Joseph Aiken, Mrs. Tristram Du Marais and Mrs. Joseph H. Miller.

The next meeting of the chapter will be on March 16 at the home of Mrs. Fred Hurd, on Chestnut Avenue. Mrs. Dorothy Evans Copp will be the speaker and her topic will be "National Descent."

Offer Aid for Poor

Contributions of clothing, food and other articles will be accepted at Cotter's Market, Haverford Avenue, for the relief of unemployed. A barrel awaits donations, which will be turned over to the Narberth committee for unemployment relief.

Prison Work Subject of Council Address

deplorable.

In spite of opposition, Mrs. Jump, who was appointed by the late Judge Willis Martin, was not discouraged and did all she could in a quiet way for the inmates of the prisons, both men and women. Later on a new Board was appointed and today there are sixteen women serving on prison boards. With their aid much has been accomplished in the correction of prison evils. Heretofore, it has been thought that prison interiors should be dark and gloomy, a place where a criminal broods; with food of bread and water. Mrs. Jump and her colleagues have corrected some of these things, as the interiors are now painted white and better food is served. In Holmesburg, the cafeteria system is employed, and work has been provided for the inmates.

In the earlier years, the matrons were not all that might be desired, but this, too, has been corrected and the matrons are of a better class today.

A new idea which the Board is working upon is the idea of classifying the prisoners and Mrs. Jump hopes that this will occur in the near future.

Another point she stressed was the firearms bill which she hopes will pass the Legislature. Mrs. Jump said that if the fingerprints of each person purchasing a weapon should be taken and each person should also have a sponsor for the purchase, and that if these lethal weapons became hard to procure there would be less crime.

A library has been established at the prisons which is a branch of the Philadelphia Library and one day each week a librarian is sent to the prison with selected reading matter for the inmates.

Another point Mrs. Jump stressed was that when a man had finished his term and was sent out he received clothes and a small amount of money but a woman, formerly, did not. Mrs.

Jump has had this corrected and when a woman is discharged, she receives clothing and ten dollars in money. The Board has been instrumental in securing radio for one of the prisons, the installation of a woman physician and a Technician. The aim of the Board is to relieve the present overcrowded conditions, provided better food and remedy many other things.

Mrs. Jump, at the close of her speech, displayed all kinds of articles made by the women inmates, such as dolls, dogs and cats. "Once in a while," said Mrs. Jump, "a lifer is allowed to have a cat. There are always a number of cats around a prison but never a dog, for a dog will never have anything to do with a person who has committed premeditated murder. Perhaps dogs know what is in the heart."

Mrs. Morris Green was the hostess and Mrs. H. Tatnall Brown, Jr., the president, was in the chair.

The next meeting of the Council will be March 19, at 8 o'clock at the Township Building in Ardmore. The speaker will be Mrs. Mabelle Kirkbride, of Norristown, a representative in the State Legislature. Her topic will be "Problems of Legislation."

On May 4, 1931, at 3 o'clock, the Annual Election of the officers of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council will take place at the Township Building.

Today, February 20, is the day this year which Christian Women of the World have set aside as the Day of Prayer.

Woman's Community Club Held Successful Bridge on Tuesday.

FUTURE CLUB PLANS

A very delightful party was given by the Board of Directors and the various chairmen of committees of the Women's Community Club of Narberth at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Nash last Thursday evening for the members of the Junior and Sub-Junior branches of the Club. There were sixty-three people present. The game of "Salamagundi" was enjoyed by the guests and prizes were awarded to both Juniors and Sub-Juniors. Valentine decorations were featured and dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. W. C. Newman was the Chairman.

On Tuesday afternoon the Club held a very successful bridge in Elm Hall. There were fifty-two present and prizes were given to the player at each table holding the highest score. An unusual feature was the community dessert of ice cream and cake served before the bridge, as most of the members had several group luncheons at their homes. The party was in charge of Mrs. V. R. Knauer and Mrs. L. W. Melcher.

The International Relations Committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Howard Strong, 29 Narbrook Park, at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

Miss Ellen Brinton will be the speaker at the meeting of the Women's Community Club on Tuesday afternoon which will be held in Elm Hall at 2:30 P. M. Her topic will be "Mexico," and will be illustrated with lantern slides. Mrs. Edward Larney and Mrs. Frank Stifel will be at the tea table.

On Thursday morning at 10:30 there will be a meeting of the Literature Class.

Peace Program Planned by Junior Club

The next meeting of the Junior Community Club, to be held on Thursday evening, February 26, will be at Elm Hall with the President, Mrs. Clifford D. Goodwin, presiding. Mrs. H. I. McConnell, county chairman, will be a guest of honor, as will several of the foreign students enrolled at Bryn Mawr College. The meeting will be devoted to a peace program, and the foreign students will attend in their national garbs, each girl giving a short talk appropriate to the occasion. Up to the present it is certain that a student from Holland and one from Germany will attend, and it is very likely that practically every nation will be represented. The Junior Community Clubs of Bala-Cynwyd and of Ardmore have also been invited, and it is hoped that a large number from the home club will be present to welcome this fine array of important guests. Mrs. Arthur Cooke and Miss Margaret Kent will act as hostesses for the evening.

Mrs. Farmer Is Speaker at Sub-Junior Meeting

Mrs. C. Arley Farmer was the speaker at the meeting of the Sub-Junior Branch of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth on Monday evening in Elm Hall. Mrs. Farmer's topic was "People." Miss Cecelia Link was the hostess.

A card party for the benefit of the Sub-Juniors will be given in Elm Hall on February 28 at two o'clock. There will be prizes for each table, good eats. There will be a small admission charge. Reservations may be made with any of the club members.

History of P.-T. A. Subject of Monday Meeting

Mrs. Howard Mellor, of West Chester, vice president of the Pennsylvania Council of Parents, was the speaker at the meeting of the Narberth Parent-Teacher Association on Monday evening at the Narberth School. Mrs. Mellor told of the founding and history of the Parent-Teacher Association movement, which celebrates its thirty-fourth anniversary this year.

A one-act play, depicting the history and functions of the Parent-Teacher Association, written by Mrs. C. H. Woolmington, president of the Narberth branch, was presented by the school children. The play ended with a song with words written by Mrs. Woolmington and set to the music of "The Lost Chord." Mrs. Postelle's class danced a minuet prettily.

Author to Speak at Presbyterian Church

Mrs. Grace Livingston Hill, popular author, will be the speaker at the Narberth Presbyterian Church on March 8. The Woman's Bible Class will have charge of the service.

Mrs. Hill has a unique place in the hearts of thousands as one from whom there has come an immeasurable amount of inspiration and happiness. She has been intimately associated with Chautauqua, thus coming into contact with many notable people both in this country and abroad.

She has had an active part in the Christian Endeavor movement since its inception and has written stories for the "Christian Endeavor World" for many years.

From the time she was sixteen she has scarcely ever been without a Sunday School class, and today is teacher of a group of young people in her church school.

Her subject on March 8th will be "Separated."

Glimpses of Pennsylvania History and Scenic Beauty

An unusual opportunity will be afforded to learn much of interest concerning the early history of central and western Pennsylvania by attending the illustrated lecture in the Narberth Presbyterian Church Thursday evening, February 26, at 8 o'clock, by Colonel J. L. Minick, of Narberth. The speaker has lived in the region he describes, and has studied closely the early history of this part of the State, which still shows signs of the Indians once inhabitants of the region. This travelogue should appeal to all lovers of Penn's Woods.

Men's Club of M. E. Church to Entertain the Ladies

The Men's Club of the Narberth Methodist Church will entertain the ladies and friends of the church on Thursday evening, February 26, at 8 o'clock.

Whether you are a resident or a stranger in the town, bring your wife or husband or a friend and participate in the entertainment of the evening. A feature of the evening will be the distribution of valuable utility gifts. This is not a game of chance, but come around and see how it is done, and get acquainted. Refreshments and all.

To Lecture on Bird Life

A talk on "Our Native Birds" will be given at the parish house of St. John's Church, Cynwyd, on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Philip A. Livingston, local publisher. The affair is sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Church. Mrs. D. A. Cameron is chairman of the committee in charge.

The talk, which will deal with the habits of local birds and methods of field study, will include an exhibit of reference works and colored plates of bird life.

'Hay Fever' Presented by M. L. Repertory Theatre

"Hay Fever," Noel Coward's highly amusing comedy, was the third offering of the season by the Main Line Repertory Theatre at the Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd on Tuesday night.

Despite a slow beginning and a tendency on the part of some members of the cast to forgetfulness, the acting improved as the play progressed and afforded considerable amusement to a good-sized audience.

Elizabeth Cunningham's interpretation of the theatrical mother of the English family which was always at cross purposes, carried off the comedy honors. Miss Cunningham also revealed a voice of freshness and charm in a song in the second act.

Other outstanding members of the cast were Robert Post as Simon, Richard Bushnell as the father, David; Anne Speed as Myra Arundel, Hope Burlingame as the flapper, Jackie. Sorel was played by Anne Forstall, Sandy Tyrell by Richard Medary, Clara by Moira Flannery, and Richard Greatham by Robert Ely, 3d.

The play was directed by Robert Rowland Dearden, 3d. The stage manager was Roland Goot, assisted by Herbert Stratton. Properties were designed by Beatrice Carver, assisted by Dorothy Stone.

Piano numbers before the curtain and during the intermissions, an innovation at this play, were played by Florence Snyder.

That old favorite of the Shuberts "My Maryland," will open tomorrow night at the Shubert and its fine song "Your Land and My Land" will ring out again in time for the special matinee on Washington's Birthday. This popular play of several years ago is returning for a limited engagement.

The most important opening of the coming week will be "The Silent Witness," which will be given at the Walnut under the auspices of the Professional Players. This will be the last of the season's offerings of this organization. It is described as a mystery drama. Incidentally it has been running in London for a year. Lionel Atwill, a well-known star, is in the cast as is Kay Strozzi, who made a decided hit in "The Crown Prince."

Monday night will see the opening of Philadelphia's newest theater experiments—melodrama at the Lyric. "Ten Nights in a Barroom" will be the first play. This will be given for one week only. In the cast are to be William Price, Ferd Nofer and Dudley Vaughan, all of whom have won approval as members of the Hedgerow players of Rose Valley.

Plays that remain at the Philadelphia houses are "Strictly Dishonorable," at the Broad; "Street Scene," at the Forrest, and "Subway Express," at the Garrick.

"Strictly Dishonorable," continues to please good-sized audiences. It is an amusing comedy of these free and easy times, when even a Southern girl of a good family doesn't hesitate to explore a New York speakeasy in quest of new sensations. Elizabeth Love is charming in the role of the young Southerner, and by her winning personality manages to soften some of the lines which are, to say the least, a bit unfeminine. Some people like "Strictly Dishonorable," others do not. But all admit that it has a number of amusing and witty remarks.

"Street Scene," too, has come in for its share of praise and criticism. This famous drama of Elmer Rice was awarded the Pulitzer Prize and has a record run of 600 performances on Broadway. This play which has been described as a "cross-section" of modern life is interesting for its realistic portrayal of several different personalities. Laughter and tears, birth and death, love and hate, are all to be found in this play. Rather slipshod acting by

The Editor's Column

Just what the borough's responsibility would be in rejecting the lowest bid on a piece of fire apparatus and awarding the contract to a higher bidder, when the specifications called for were fulfilled by the low bidder, was a question which provoked considerable discussion and argument at Council last week.

This was the situation: The Narberth Fire Company needs a new piece of apparatus to replace the old Autocar chemical truck which is no longer satisfactory to the firemen. Bids were advertised for and received from four concerns. Due to his connection with the Autocar Company, Councilman Wood did not wish to become involved in the matter, and intended to request his company not to bid. Fire Chief Noel, however, requested Mr. Wood to see that Autocar placed a bid on the apparatus, which they did.

In the bidding Autocar was low, $575 less than the bid placed by American La France. The total figures were $4225 for Autocar and $4800 for American La France. The apparatus built by American La France is that which meets with the fullest approval of the firemen. Thorough inspection of the various types, including Seagrave at Upper Darby by the mechanics, drivers and men of the Narberth Fire Company showed that the American La France was the apparatus they most desired.

When Council hedged on accepting the recommendation of the Police and Fire Committee that the American La France apparatus be purchased, Chief Noel, who also occupies the post of borough clerk, rose to the defense of his firemen and asked permission of the chair to speak as a private citizen. The permission was not granted and it was a dissatisfied clerk who continued in his place for some time.

"Fire trucks," said Mr. Noel, when given a chance to speak later, "in our case are gotten for service." He continued to the effect that they must have speed and hill-climbing ability. That was one reason the men disliked the Autocar, which was sent out for the test. It had no speed or hill-climbing ability. Mr. Wood countered this aspersion by pointing out that many Autocars were sold in Pittsburgh and other sections where there were plenty of hills, and that complaints regarding their speed were seldom heard. As far as climbing hills goes, Mr. Wood pointed out that the Autocar used in the test by the firemen was a standard chassis with an excessive load which had been required by the fire chief, and, furthermore, tests made on State Road hill were not typical of the uses the apparatus would be put to in the borough.

After each gentleman had his say, Council proceeded to reject all bids and authorize readvertisement for new bids. This advertisement which appears in this issue of "Our Town" apparently is so worded that only the apparatus of the American La France will fill the specifications. The borough will spend a few extra dollars for advertising for new bids but thereby it may save itself many times that by not permitting itself to be drawn into any legal battles over the question of accepting other than the low bid.

Council wishes to provide the Fire Company with the apparatus which best suits the men who will use it, provided it can be legally and economically procured.

A movement is under way in Lower Merion Township, being fostered by a Citizens' Committee, which has as its object the preparation of a Township Plan.

We do not recommend the formation of a similar group for the Borough of Narberth inasmuch as Narberth's one square mile of territory is pretty well built up and there is little that can be done in a planning way.

We do, however, favor representation of the borough on Lower Merion's Citizens' Committee since projects they initiate are bound in one way or another to affect Narberth. Such representation, of course, would have to be unofficial as far as the Lower Merion group is concerned. There is no doubt that this committee would welcome representation from Narberth if approached.

The arguments of a good many men are sound—and that's all.

Certain Opinions

Of E. L. P.

The editors of this news-magazine are never sure just what will go into the paper from one week to the next. This column was one of the details they were not certain about. But given one paragraph, a few others ought to follow.

It is pleasing to note that the Democrats are rowing over prohibition, as if it mattered. Members of the minority just couldn't stand the possible advent of prosperity for their party although it looked for a while as if they would keep quiet long enough to be dangerous in 1932. Instead, the way is being left clear for the Republicans to steer the Ship of State until the seas calm down a bit. Never mind what started the rough weather.

The fifty per cent. of the face value loans on the veterans' bonus, which probably has been passed by the Senate and possibly vetoed by this time, looks like a fair compromise in a ticklish situation. It's rather difficult for the legislators to say a blunt "nay" to the former service men when they are united on a proposal. At the same time the full payment plan didn't look like the best kind of economics to a lot of folks who know their finances. The fifty per cent. plan will mean much less than half a loaf. Why? If full payment were provided, all the veterans would cash in because the money was due and payable. With the loan, however, a large percentage will think about the interest and decide to "leave it lay."

Nearly everybody of adult age has seen Lillian Leitzel, who died on Sunday in Copenhagen following a fall. Miss Leitzel for years toured with the Ringling-Barnum circus and frequently appeared in Philadelphia. She was the petite performer who made about a hundred complete turns while hanging to a single trapeze by one hand without pulling her arm from its socket. Her stunt required such a combination of strength and skill that few of the boys, who drive mothers frantic by emulating talkie thriller players and sawdust stars, tried to imitate her.

Come to think of it, though, there isn't much of the old-time movie stunts and daredevilry in the talkie version. Blank cartridges popping from machine guns is the most exciting thing that happens nowadays. What a contrast to the twenty impossibilities that were actually performed before your eyes in the days of yore old serial continued next Tuesday.

While the Athletics are now arriving at their spring training camp, it should not be forgotten that a month and one-half of winter remains, according to the almanac. Anyhow, we shouldn't think of baseball until it is determined how far the Lower Merion basketball team will go this year.

Ho! Hum! We wonder:

How many more times the warden of the Los Angeles jail will permit Daisy De Boe to pose behind the bars for the news photographers.

Why the fellow, who is drawing down his as usual, talks about hard times as if he were personally affected by the "repression."

If and when, particularly if, the new Main Line railroad stations are built, the theme of the Broad Street Suburban will be carried out, permitting one to roam under cover uninterrupted from Overbrook to Paoli.

'Pot Luck' Supper Tonight

Today the C. E. Society of Narberth Presbyterian Church will have a "Pot Luck" banquet at 6 P. M. Admission, "a dish of something to eat." Mr. L. Bowers, Branch President, will be the speaker.

Narberth Theatre Notes

Richard Barthelmess in "The Lash," a story of old California, is the Narberth Theatre's attraction this Friday and Saturday. Next Monday and Tuesday Marie Dressler and Wallace Berry will co-star in the dramatic and at the same time humorous and intensely human tale of "Min and Bill." The life of "Abraham Lincoln," as impersonated by Walter Huston, assumes added dignity, humanity and greatness, in the well-nigh perfect cinema which is to be seen-heard at the Narberth Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. One of the season's great films, recommended for children and adults for its entertainment as well as its instructive value.

Will Rogers in "Lightnin'" will be Narberth's feature next Friday and Saturday. The cinema version of a popular play takes renewed humor and vitality with America's leading humorist in the leading role.

Egyptian Theatre Notes

"Billy the Kid," a wild West thriller, has the beautiful Kay Johnson, the villainous Wallace Beery, the humorous Karl Dane and the handsome hero John Mack Brown in its cast, at the Egyptian this week-end. Accompanying it is a new Laurel and Hardy comedy.

Appropriate for celebration of Washington's birthday is the epic of a pioneer movement later than the Revolution—the covered-wagon trek westward—"The Big Trail," which will play at the Egyptian Monday and Tuesday evenings, and also at a matinee 2:15 P. M. Monday. A mighty picture of a great era in history, it merits observation.

Egyptian fans will have an opportunity next Wednesday and Thursday (including a 3 P. M. matinee Wednesday) to see Marlene Dietrich, new German enchantress of the screen, in "Morocco." Gary Cooper and Adolphe Menjou aid her in giving a perfect performance, and the film, directed by Joseph von Sternberg, is remarkably interesting and realistic. You may not like its ending—although you will realize it is inevitable.

"Paid," Joan Crawford's latest picture, which will play in Cynwyd next week-end, enables her to discard "dancing daughter" and "blushing bride" characterizations, and play a straight dramatic part in an adaptation of the underworld drama, "Within the Law."

Narberth's community weekly news-magazine may be purchased at news-stands in the borough, and $2 will bring it by mail to your home every Friday for a year.

Thirty-eighth Birthday Tea

The Evangel Circle of King's Daughters will give a tea at the home of Mrs. A. J. Bawden, 1 Woodside Avenue, on Friday, February 27, from two until four P. M. to celebrate the thirty-eighth birthday of the circle. Mrs. Charles H. Harrison, the first president (who now lives in Ventnor, N. J.), will be present and will tell of the origin of the Circle and some of the good work it is doing. Those interested are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Poetry of Lizette Reese, Praised by Mencken, Is Stocked by Library

Every one whose attention was arrested recently by a news item in the local papers featuring the fact that Mencken (Mencken, you know) was present at the seventy-fifth birthday of a poet in the role of a eulogist, will naturally desire to become further acquainted with the subject of the conium. Lizette Woodworth Reese, it was, a woman, who had thus inspired the caustic free-lance critic, and editor of the American Mercury. "One of the imperishable glories of American letters," Mencken said of her, and in this he receives the sincere support of the literary world, for Miss Reese is the author of that sonnet beginning, "When I consider Life and its few years, a wisp of fog betwixt us and the sun," a sonnet considered by many to be one of the most famous written by any American.

The Library has two volumes of her poems, one a group of selected poems dealing with the common experiences of life, lilacs in bloom, spring joys, lost loves, grey rain, and religious sentiment, and the new group, "White April," a small volume, less than seventy pages, but very choice with a fine collection of songs and lyrical sonnets. The sonnet which gives its name to the book is only a prelude to the ecstasies and delights in all the changing phases of April weather, "gone mad with white." Many of the anthologies of American poetry include several of her poems, always "Tears," frequently "Spicewood," and sometimes "A Flower of Mullen."

On Washington's birthday there will be an unusually interesting tea in the Egyptian Hall of the University Museum given by the University of Pennsylvania from 4 until 6 o'clock when there will be music and on which day the entire Museum will be open for inspection. The guests will be received by Mrs. Josiah H. Penniman, Mrs. James De Wolf Perry, Mrs. Robert von Moschzisker and Mrs. George M. Piersol at the entrance in the Chinese rotunda. There will be an opportunity to see and enjoy the new acquisitions to the museum's collections of classical art, a selection of which will be shown for the first time and also to see the galleries of the Central and South American sections, which have been newly installed.

Choral's Show a Hit

Solos, a male trio, and men's and women's and combined chorus numbers were well presented by the Bala-Cynwyd Community Choral, under direction of Henry Hotz, at its annual concert, given at the Bala-Cynwyd Woman's Club last Friday and Saturday nights. A "Musical Bridge" or melodic revue spanning the years, the program was divided into four groups: Indian, Colonial, Negro and Modern. Fifty voices shared in making the concert a success. The Woman's Club was well filled both nights. Dancing followed the performance.

Very vicious vandals. On the night of Lincoln's birthday, the home of Dr. George Darby, on Highland Avenue, Merion, was ransacked, from garret to cellar. It was believed that vandals forced an entrance through a rear door and continued their devastating way while the members of the household were absent.

Dynamite endangers. Also on Thursday, the twelfth, eight sticks of dynamite were found hidden in a coal pile between two buildings of the Thomas M. It has not been discovered how the dynamite, which endangered the lives of fifty employees, had gotten into the coal.

$100,000 school planned. The Radnor Township School Board voted, at a meeting last week held at the Radnor High School, Wayne, to erect an elementary school at Windermere and Louella Avenues, at a cost of $100,000. It will replace the Old Radnor Presbyterian Church. Mrs. T. Magill Patterson, a member of the board, presented the recommendation for the new school.

Bryn Maw firemen's work. According to an announcement made by Fire Chief Horace W. Parsons, the Bryn Mawr Fire Company answered 110 alarms during the past year. The loss of property in the district by fire amounted to $42,723.30; property saved by the action of the fire company during the year totaled about $1,139,136.70. And property endangered is said to have been $1,171,850.

Another station robbery. Telephone and coin box were torn from the wall of the P. R. R. Merion station on Friday night. Thieves broke open the coin box, then threw it on the tracks.

A busy Saturday night. Five homes in Ardmore Park and Penfield were entered on Saturday evening. In all five houses, windows were jimmied, or back doors were forced, in order to obtain an entrance to the house when members of the family were absent. Those robbed were Edward Thomson, 1201 Edgewood Road; R. S. Sullivan, 601 Manoa Road, and Mrs. Lucy J. O'Hara, 631 Ashurst Road, all of Penfield, and Robert Hertwig, 817 Wynnewood Road, and Joseph F. Lacy, 2303 Chestnut Avenue, Ardmore Park. Clothing and jewelry amounting to $700 were stolen.

A concrete discussion. W. E. Rosengarten, an engineer of Lower Merion, spoke on Tuesday evening before the Engineers' Club of Philadelphia on concrete masonry.

The night was fine and so was the $10. T. J. Ford, 3905 Walnut Street, and John McGonigle, 5031 Penridge Street, Philadelphia, failed to get a response when they tried to start their car on Sunday evening. So they tried sleeping in the machine right where it was, at State Road and Lodges Lane, but they were found by a Lower Merion officer, and later fined $10 each for highway sleeping.

Junior High principal speaks. Edward H. Snow chose as his subject for a Lincoln birthday address before the Ardmore Rotary Club: "Abraham Lincoln and His Generals." Mr. Snow spoke of President Lincoln as the "plainsman farmer," who came to the Capitol of Washington knowing little of military affairs, but that he became a keen military strategist by his study of maps, and his fine understanding of men and of his generals. Many of the plans of the Civil War generals were, according to Mr. Snow, the plans of the President himself. Harry Bare, of the Merion Title and Trust Company, was elected song leader of the Rotary Club.

Carburetor catches fire. A leak in the carburetor of a motor car caused a slight fire last Friday in the garage of Mr. and Mrs. James Francis Cooke, of Landberris Road, Cynwyd. The blaze was soon extinguished by the Union Fire Company, of Cynwyd. Mr. Cooke is a prominent musician and editor of "The Etude."

New chapel for Episcopal. A fund started several years ago for the erection of a memorial chapel at Episcopal Academy is gradually being built up. No definite plans have been developed and no announcement will be made until the fund is many times the present amount.

Family flees fire. Rubbish in the cellar got on fire on Friday, the 13th, at the home of Martin Geary, 16 Lee Street. The firemen soon put the blaze out, but the family left the house until the situation was under control.

Brooms for brush. The Berwyn Fire Department has sent out a call for old brooms to fight brush blazes. Housewives have been asked by a committee from the department to save old brooms instead of throwing them away. According to the fire chief, brooms soaked in water are particularly effective when used to combat field fires.

Fish Filets With Tomato and Olive Sauce

Orange Tapioca Cream Coffee

Fish Filets With Tomato and Olive Sauce

Dip six individual fish filets in one beaten egg, then a 1-3 cup of finely sifted cracker crumbs. Saute in four tablespoons of fat until tender and golden brown. Meanwhile melt four tablespoons of fat, add one onion finely minced, and cook until tender; add four tablespoons of flour and stir until smooth. Add two cupfuls of canned tomato sauce, 1 cupful of stoned and chopped olives, 1 teaspoon of salt, 1-8 teaspoon of pepper. Stir until well blended and hot. Pour over the fish filets which have been arranged on a platter and serve. Serves six.

Kidney Bean Salad

Combine contents of one medium sized can of kidney beans, well-drained, with two cupfuls of finely shredded cabbage; 1-4 cup full of chopped sour pickles, a teaspoonful of chopped onion, and 1-3 cupful of French Dressing highly seasoned or not, according to taste.

Orange Tapioca Cream

1-3 cupful of instantaneous tapioca.
1-2 cupful of sugar.
1-4 teaspoon of salt.
1 quart of scalded milk.
1 egg yolk, slightly beaten.
1 egg white stiffly beaten.
1 teaspoon of orange or vanilla extract.

4 orange sections free from membranes.

Add tapioca, sugar and salt to milk and cook in double boiler, 15 minutes or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Pour a small amount of the mixture over the egg yolk, stirring vigorously. When well mixed, return to double boiler and cook until thickened. Remove from stove and fold in egg white and flavoring. Place a few sections of orange in the bottom of individual serving dishes and cover with pudding. Garnish with additional sections and whipped cream.

Canton Gingerbread

Add 1-2 cupful of finely chopped preserved ginger to your favorite ginger bread recipe, substituting 1-4 cupful of ginger sirup for an equal portion of the molasses called for.

A very delicious accompaniment to serve at an afternoon tea or card party may be made from grape fruit rinds. Here is a recipe furnished by Mrs. Addie Hewitt, of 116 Dudley Avenue, Narberth.

Sugared Grape Fruit Rind

After the center of the grape fruit has been removed, rinse the rinds and cut away all the loose fiber. Cut up in strips about 1-4 inch thick and put in cold water and bring to a boil. Repeat this operation two more times. Then make a sirup of one pound of sugar and one cup of water and drop the grapefruit slices and let simmer slowly until all the sirup is absorbed by the grapefruit slices. After this is done, lay the rinds on a tray until entirely cold and sprinkle with sugar. These may be kept indefinitely.

Several of our readers have requested a recipe for Chocolate Sirup. Here is a very delicious one sent by Mrs. Eugen Hoskins, of 313 Woodside Avenue, Narberth. This sirup may be used for ice cream, hot chocolate and may be made in the full quantity and kept in the ice box, ready for use.

2 cups of cocoa.
4 cups of sugar.
2 cups of water.

Mix sugar and cocoa, add the water and when thoroughly mixed, cook slowly in a double boiler for ten minutes. Put in a jar and use when needed. Two tablespoons of hot milk added to this sirup will make a delightful hot chocolate.

Send your recipes to "Our Town," care of Mrs. Roberts.

WHO'S WHO in the Lower Merion Police Force

Officer Sam Adams Is a Veteran of Department

The twelfth of a series of articles to introduce the members of Lower Merion's splendid police force to our readers.

By Robert M. Cameron.

One of the veterans of the department is Officer Samuel Adams, who will round out eighteen years of service on August 1 of this year.

Adams, who is now assigned to the South Ardmore beat, has worked in practically every section of the township. For seven years he was on duty in Bryn Mawr from 7 in the evening till 5 in the morning. His other beats include North Ardmore, Wynnewood, Anthwyn Farms, Penn Valley and Lancaster Pike in Ardmore.

When Adams joined the force in 1913 there were eighteen men, counting the chief, in addition to himself. The growth of the township in those seventeen and a half years is reflected in the increased police department which now numbers ninety-one men, including the superintendent, lieutenants and sergeants.

"The drunks were the only ones that gave us any trouble in the old days," Adams said. "We used to have a wagon drawn by a team of horses to go around and collect them. Then the department got an old Autocar which was used as the patrol wagon. But we didn't dare drive it very fast or the thing would upset going round a corner. The Autocar and an old Ford touring car were the only motor vehicles owned by the department."

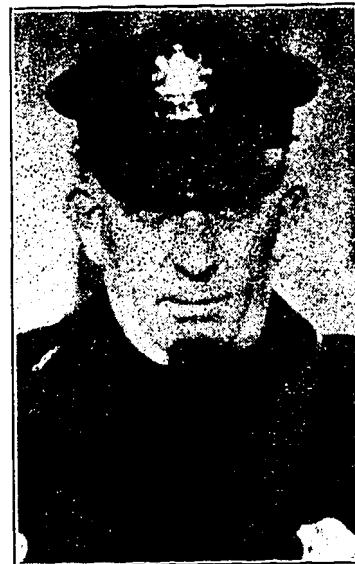

Officer Adams has a very evident pride in the Lower Merion police force. This is readily seen in the manner in which he speaks of his superiors and fellow-officers. It is also evident that he has its best interests at heart. For instance, in speaking of investigations of robberies, etc., he expressed the opinion that no news should be given out until all investigating is finished, since premature release of information bearing on the case might make it all the more difficult to clear up.

Samuel Adams was born March 6, 1879, in West Conshohocken, and raised there. After attending public school, he went to work when he was about 14, driving teams.

After a trip out West and a sojourn in Cleveland, he returned to this section, working for a year with the Bell Telephone Company at Norristown.

His later jobs before joining the force include teaming for William Kerrigan, work with the Suplee coal yard, the American Ice Company and again with the Bell Telephone Company, at Rosemont.

Sam Adams has a brother on the force, Archie, who was the subject of an article in this series recently. Sam was married on March 6, 1912, and lives at 55 South Warner Avenue, Bryn Mawr.

Directors Re-elected by Autocar Company

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the Autocar Company, held February 13, 1931, the following directors were re-elected: R. P. Page, Jr., W. W. Battles, W. C. Janney, Conrad N. Lauer, C. S. Newhall, H. Arthur Smith, John C. Taney, J. B. Warren and H. E. Miller.

The Company's financial statement of December 31, 1930, shows quick assets of $7,406,000, against current liabilities of $1,644,000, the ratio of 4-1-2 to 1 being a considerable improvement over previous years. Shrinkage in sales volume occasioned an operating loss of $149,000 after charging off depreciation and development expense amounting to $447,000.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors following the stockholders' meeting all officers were re-elected and the regular quarterly dividend of $2.00 a share on preferred stock was declared, payable March 15 to stockholders of record as of March 5.

Sunshine Bible Class

The Sunshine Bible Class of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold their regular meeting in the church parlors on Tuesday evening, February 24.

—And This Is Rosemont

The Station at Rosemont, while by no means a work of art, is adequate for the present needs of the community. The Post Office, now hidden in the southeast corner of the photo, will soon be moved.

Historical Program Presented at School

Famous Spots of Colonial Times Illustrated and Described.

LOCAL GROUPS SPONSOR

There was quite a treat at the Narberth Public School on Thursday evening when some "Historic Spots" relating to our Colonial and Revolutionary history were dealt with—pictorially, under the auspices of the Educational Committee at large. Not often had the large audience present seen so many patriotic places depicted on the screen or listened to such excellent descriptions.

The Old Dominion, from Jamestown and Williamsburg in the early colonial day to Fredericksburg, home of Mary, Mother of Washington, Ethan Allan House, supplied many of the subjects; and it is doubtful whether some of the on-lookers had ever before "toured" Virginia so fruitfully. Particularly outstanding were original pictures of the "Seals" of the Colonies, "George Washington" and "Powhatan's tree."

It was much the same with historic New York, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maryland, Connecticut, Rhode Island, North Carolina, South Carolina, Delaware, Georgia and, of course, our own Pennsylvania, which is really behind no other section of the Union in its multitudes of places rendered interesting by the events of its two and a half centuries of history.

But, much as we think of our Valley Forge and Independence Hall, it is good to look elsewhere at times, as in this instance at Narberth School, and feel proud of the historic places in the other twelve colonies of the Atlantic seaboard prior to the opening up of the trans-Allegheny region.

Among the residents sponsoring the program are the following: Mrs. J. R. Aiken, Mrs. S. A. Anderson, Mrs. Natalie R. Boal, Mrs. Harry M. Chalfont, Mrs. Robert Dohard, Mrs. T. Patty Leonard Wins Junior High Spelling Contest

Lower Merion Junior High School held the second Annual Spelling Contest Wednesday afternoon in the Junior High auditorium. The winner, Patty Leonard, of Bala Avenue, Cynwyd, received the Charles B. Pennypacker Cup which is awarded by the Faculty of the School. Fifty-four pupils took part in the contest, two from each home room in the building. These were the survivors of spelling contests held in each home room earlier in the year. Frank Davenport, Principal of the Ardmore and Wynnewood Road Schools, and President of the Ardmore Rotary Club, gave out the words. Miss Isabel Endsow, Miss Elizabeth Filler and Mr. John Dale were the judges. Patty won when Bradley Rodgers, the last of the boys, failed to spell the word "impartial." Nance Service won the cup last year.

L. M. Court Team Vanquishes 2 Rivals

Strong Chester and Catholic High Fives Bow to Local Boys.

UPPER DARBY TONIGHT

Chester High School brought an aggressive combination to Ardmore last Friday and made a superhuman effort to stop the veteran club of Bill Anderson's, but in vain, for the men of the Maroon overwhelmed them, 47 to 25.

Once again Johnny Pennypacker led the local cohorts to victory via the cord route, and his twenty or so points showed the scribes who hung in bunches along Bill Anderson's bench that he is the class of Philadelphia basketball. The balcony, which housed rabid Lower Merion fans, also sheltered the Chester High principal and a few other adherents who followed the team to the edge of Montgomery County, hoping for a Chester victory.

Lower Merion played an almost flawless game, and they had to, to win from the courageous five who the week previous smothered Upper Darby in a league contest. The visitors played hard to win, and as the final whistle blew they were in there fighting just the same as though the difference in the score was only a point or two.

The Maroon followed up with another win on Tuesday afternoon. The game marked the fourteenth consecutive victory for Bill Anderson's boys, and it was welcome, for it was against Catholic High, which has one of the best basketball teams in Philadelphia. The locals were not extended to win, as the visitors had lost two of their varsity members through ineligibility. The varsity left the game late in the fourth quarter, leading 42 to 12. The final score was 42 to 14.

The game with Upper Darby will be played tonight in the Junior High School instead of the afternoon on the high school floor. This will enable the local fans to see the team in action and will provide for the influx of visitors from Upper Darby who wish to see the game.

Lower Merion Swimmers Bow to Upper Darby

At the Norristown Y. M. C. A. Pool, Lower Merion Swimming Team lost to Upper Darby Swimming Team by the close score of 33-32, on Monday. The most exciting event of the afternoon was the last race—the hundred yard free-style. Phil Pitcher and Bob Riter were entered for Lower Merion. Either first place or second and third places would have turned the meet for the L. M. boys. At the beginning of the last lap, Pitcher led by a stroke, but, as he neared the finish line, one Upper Darby fellow sprinted past him and touched the end of the pool the barest fraction of a second before Pitcher. By a slightly larger margin, the second Upper Darby swimmer beat Riter. However, each boy gave his best in his event and it was a fight to the end. It was a good afternoon's entertainment and it gave the teams a fine workout.

Haverford Trims Amherst

After having a 11-9 lead at half time, the Amherst basketball team bowed to Haverford College, 31-21, at Haverford last Friday night. The Main Line quintet rolled up 22 points in a second-half scoring orgy, with Captain Reisner leading the attack.

Villanova Downs Ursinus

With Whitey Czesick, Wildcat forward on the rampage, scoring 14 points, Villanova trounced Ursinus in basketball, 39-23, at Villanova last Friday. Markins, Villanova's stalwart guard, produced 10 points in addition to playing a fine defensive game.

School Notes

Tigers in Lead in Basketball League

The four boys' basketball clubs have been playing every Tuesday and Thursday evenings after school. So far the Tigers are in the lead in these games. They have been beaten only once; that was by the Goats. The following are the results of the first half of the season:

One section of the seventh grade history class visited the Art Museum on the Parkway Thursday, February 12. The trip was made in cars furnished by Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. Monks, Mrs. Drennen, Mrs. Van Auker, Mr. Fage and Mr. Civitello. The purpose of the journey was to observe and study the Colonial rooms with their furniture arrangement, etc. This links up with the Colonial period in their American history. Miss Hoover also plans to soon take the sixth grade history group to the Commercial Museum to make a study of exhibits on periods in early European history.

The Auditorium program on January 22 was presented by the seventh grade girls' gym class. It was a stunt program, made up of balance board walking, pyramid building, Indian club relays, tap dancing, all of which is a part of the regular class work. On February 5 the sixth grade English class dramatized the story, "Soldier's Reprieve," an incident based on Civil War history, in which Abraham Lincoln displayed his character in granting a reprieve to a boy who had slept at his post. The program also included the reading of the best letters which were written to Admiral Byrd. Jane Chillas, Mildred Thomas and Nelson Bucher were the three pupils whose letters were read. Nelson Bucher's was chosen as the best and has been sent to the headquarters of the National Education Association to be included in the bound sheaf of letters which will be presented to Byrd at the N. E. A. convention, Department of Superintendence, at Detroit, February 24.

Some interesting work may be seen in the classrooms now, correlations with some phase of the classroom work. In first grade, a reproduction of Mount Vernon and Eskimo villages; second grade, a grocery store and a postoffice; third grades, a farm layout and a "How We Are Clothed" project. All of these have offered opportunity for pupil activity and civic experience, as well as means of classwork instruction. In the fourth grade, section two, a lumber camp is in the making, a geography activity. In the fifth grade a reproduction of various industrial landmarks in United States history is in progress. The sixth and seventh grades are reproducing a Normandy castle and Colonial villages, respectively, all based on history work. The kindergarten children have just completed a waste material project, having made toys from pasteboard boxes, cylinders, etc.

Councilman Hall Reports on Convention of Boroughs

J. R. Hall, of Sabine Avenue, who attended the annual convention of the State Association of Boroughs held at Harrisburg Tuesday and Wednesday of this week as the official delegate of the Narberth Borough Council, reports that many matters of interest came up for discussion.

A recommendation was unanimously adopted by the Association, Mr. Hall said, which would provide for paying of all fines imposed for traffic violations within boroughs to the borough treasury, instead of to the State as the present law requires. This recommendation is expected to meet with the approval of the State Legislature shortly and be incorporated in the new motor vehicle code.

Another recommendation adopted at the convention, if passed by the Legislature, would provide for the exemption of political sub-divisions of the State from payment of the State gasoline tax and for the refunding of all previous amounts paid on this account.

Another matter which came up for discussion but was referred back to the Association's Law Committee, Mr. Hall said, was the proposal to make tax payments in four installments. There was no general agreement on this subject.

Wynnewood Boy Scouts Display Camping Trophies

The Wynnewood Pine Tree Troop, of the Boy Scouts, of which the Rev. E. J. Bubb is scoutmaster, has a very interesting window display this week at the Strawbridge and Clothier Store, in Ardmore. This troop, which won the first prize in camping in the Delaware and Montgomery County district, arranged the window themselves under the direction of the window decorator of the store. Incidentally this scout group has won nearly every prize there is for camping. The assistant scoutmasters, Ruben Norbloom and Philip Pitcher have worked up in the troop until now at 18 they are assistants, and are largely responsible for the cleverness of the display.

On Saturday the boys will hike to Valley Forge where the Delaware and Montgomery Council will hold a conclave. Last year the Pine Tree Troop won the "Troop" at the Valley Forge Council. The boys have been taking part in hikes for the last two Saturdays, the first being a "marking hike" and the second a "roller skate" hike.

The Gladwyne Troop has challenged the Wynnewood group to a contest on March 2 at the Gladwyne Community Hall, when scout games, wrestling matches and a basketball game will be held.

John C. Foster, of Brookhurst Avenue, who was scoutmaster of the Wynnewood Pine Tree Troop for eight years and was largely responsible for making it such a successful troop, has been appointed assistant scout executive of the Delaware and Montgomery Council.

Main Line Girl Scouts Plan Leaders' Meeting

District No. 8, of the Girl Scouts will hold a Leader's Training Day at the Cynwyd Girl Scout Headquarters on Saturday, February 28, from 9 A. M. until 5 P. M. Those attending expect to cook their own luncheon as part of the course. The following subjects have been suggested by the leaders—others may be added later: Signalling games and methods, second class games and methods, merit badges discussion and method, first class method and games, new noisy fun games. The luncheon discussion will be on "Older Girls in the Troop."

The Bryn Mawr Girl Scout Troop studied trees and gathered moss for a scout hanging basket on hike taken on Friday, the 13th. The route followed the outskirts of Bryn Mawr. Helen Pryor, acting lieutenant, was in charge. Returning to the starting point at the Church of the Good Shepherd, a short meeting was held when new patrol leaders and troop officers were elected. Jane Elsey and Mary Gane were chosen the new patrol leaders; Mary Cavanaugh, treasurer, and Minnie Peezie, the troop scribe.
